1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 My Gas (Pty) Ltd (hereafter "the Company") is a registered private company with limited liability duly incorporated under the laws of South Africa.
- 1.2 The Company was established with the purpose of supplying Hospitality and LPG gas solutions to the public.
- 1.3 The Company supplies some of the leading businesses in manufacturing & engineering with high-quality gases over the entire South Africa, with offices in different provinces throughout the Country.
- 1.4 The Company is a Responsible Party of Protected Information and Special Protected Information (hereafter "Protected Information") as defined under the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (hereafter "POPIA").
- 1.5 The Company guarantees its commitment to protect a Data Subject's privacy whilst promoting the right to access information. Balancing the right to information protection, access and transparency in accordance with the Republic of South Africa laws.
- 1.6 The 1996 South African Constitution, by providing a statutory right of access on request to any record held by the state as well as access to records held by private bodies, entrenches the fundamental right to access to information.
- 1.7 The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 ("PAIA"), which came into effect on 9 March 2001, seeks to advance the values of transparency and accountability in South Africa and provides the mechanism for requesters to exercise and protect their constitutional right to request access to a record.
- 1.8 PAIA establishes the following statutory rights of requesters to any record of a private body if:
 - That record is required for the exercise or protection of any of his or her legal rights;
 - That requester complies with all the procedural requirements; and
 - Access is not refused in terms of any ground referred to in the Act.
- 1.9 In terms of the PAIA, private bodies are required to publish a manual to assist requesters who wish to request access to a record.
- 1.10 This document serves as the Company's PAIA Manual ("the Manual") in accordance with the requirements of section 51 of the Act to facilitate access to records held by The Company.

- 1.11 A copy of this Manual is available to any person of the public in a PDF (“Portable Document Format”) version on request from the Information Officer referred to in this Manual.
- 1.12 The Company endorses the spirit of the PAIA and believes that this Manual will assist requesters in exercising their rights.
- 1.13 In summary the Manual provides information on the:
- Contact details of the Information Officer;
 - Structure and functions of The Company.
 - Subjects and categories of records that are held by the Company; and
 - Procedure that needs to be followed and criteria that must be met by a requester to request access to a record.
- 1.14 PAIA further provides that a requester is only entitled to access to a record if the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right. Only requests for access to a record, where the requester has satisfied the Information Officer that the record is required to exercise or protect a right, will be considered. A requester may act in different capacities in making a request for a record.
- 1.15 Requesters may make a request as:
- A personal requester who requests a record about him/herself;
 - An agent requester who requests a record on behalf of someone else with that person’s consent and where it is required for the protection of that person’s legal right;
 - A third-party requester who requests a record about someone else with that person’s consent and where it is required for the protection of that person’s legal right; and
- 1.16 The Company will protect the confidentiality of information provided to it by third parties, subject to the Company’s obligations to disclose information in terms of any applicable law or a court order requiring disclosure of the information. If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, the Company is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request.
- 1.17 This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied. In the event that the third-party furnishing reasons for the support or denial of access, the Information Officer will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted, or not.

2. OBJECTIVE:

17 HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS

17.1 Any request for access to records should be submitted on the prescribed Form 2 (a copy of which is attached) which should be sent to the Group Information Officer whose name and address details appear in paragraph 6 hereof.

17.2 The form is also available on the Information Regulator's website at: www.inforegulator.gov.za

17.3 This form should also accompany the "Request for Access form".

17.4 Please submit the completed forms to our information officer together with the relevant request fee (please refer to paragraph 19 hereof).

17.5 Please ensure that:

- The forms are correctly completed, with all lines and spaces attended to.
- Proof of the identity, in the form of a copy of the applicant's identity document, is submitted with the application.
- If the applicant is a legal entity, that a written resolution or duly signed authority is attached.
- The form is completed in type or print format, in a clear eligible manner.
- If a question does not apply, indicate so by inserting "N/A" in response to that question, and if there is nothing to disclose in response to a particular question, write "NIL" in response thereto.
- If there is insufficient space in the form, add additional folios on which the additional Information is provided, clearly indicating to which question this relates.
- Your request has enough Information for the Information Officer to identify the records to which you request access and which form of access you require;
- You provide your correct contact details to enable the IO to make contact.
- You provide proof of the capacity in which you are making the request if you are making it on behalf of someone else, please attach such authorisations.

17.6 If you do not use the standard form or complete it as required, we may:

- Reject the request due to lack of procedural compliance;
- Refuse it if you do not provide sufficient Information; or
- Delay it.

17.7 Please note that the correct completion and submission of a Request for Access form does not automatically entitle or allow the applicant access to the requested record. An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations, and the discretion of the Information Officer of the Company, as set out in paragraph 20 and 21 hereof.

18 HOW MUCH IT WILL COST YOU

- 18.1 You will be requested to pay the prescribed fee as required by law when submitting a request for access to Information.
- 18.2 The prescribed fees are as set out in the Fee Schedule, Form 3 which is available here: <https://inforegulator.org.za/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/Form-3-PAIA.pdf>
- 18.3 A requestor is required to pay the prescribed fees before a request is processed.
- 18.4 If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one-third of the access fee, which would be payable if the request were granted).
- 18.5 A Requester may lodge an application with a court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit.
- 18.6 Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.

19 DECISION ON REQUEST

The applicant will be informed whether or not the application for access has been denied, or granted. In the event that the application is refused, the applicant will be given adequate reasons for the refusal and will be informed that the applicant may lodge an application with the Information Regulator to review the refusal of the application, as well as the procedure (including the period) for lodging such application.

20 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

- 20.1 The Company may legitimately refuse to grant access to a requested record that falls within a certain category. Grounds on which the Company may refuse access include:
 - 20.1.1 Protecting Protected Information that the Company holds about a third person (who is a natural person), including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
 - 20.1.2 Protecting commercial Information that the Company holds about a third party or the Company (for example, trade secret: financial, commercial, scientific or technical Information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the organisation or the third party);

- 20.1.3 If disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- 20.1.4 If disclosure of the record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- 20.1.5 If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the security of property or means of transport;

21 RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DO NOT EXIST

If the Information Officer has searched for a record and it is believed that the record either does not exist or cannot be found, the Requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken to try and locate the record.

22 THIRD PARTY INFORMATION

If access is requested to a record containing information about a third party, the Company is obliged to contact this third party to inform them of the request. This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied. In the event of the third party furnishing reasons for the support or denial of access, our designated Information Officer will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted or not.
